

Concerned Persons for Adoption (CPFA) is offering a free “talk” entitled “Adoption is Forever: When Adoptees Grow up” with Amy Strickler, LMSW, LSW and Amy Geller, LCSW on Friday, May 3rd from 8:00 – 9:30 pm EST

Join Amy Strickler and Amy Geller on this thought-provoking topic focusing on the adoptee in adulthood. This program will encourage interactive dialog among the participants discussing questions such as:

What is the experience of an adoptee when they reach adulthood?

How does being adopted inform the transitions and turning points that come with this phase of life?

Chat about common issues that adult adoptees face as they continue their lifelong journey. This program should prove to be a very interesting discussion for pre-and post- adoptive parents as well as adult adoptees.

Click here to register: <https://fs17.formsite.com/cpfan/CanWeTalk/index>

A Zoom link will be sent to you the day before the event

About Amy Strickler, LMSW, LSW: Ms. Strickler is currently the Assistant Director of the Intensive Weekend Program, and Assistant Professor of Teaching at the Rutgers School of Social Work. Ms. Strickler is also an adult adoptee as well as an adoptive parent with three grown children.

About Amy Geller, LCSW: Ms. Geller is a Doctoral Student at the State University of New Jersey at Rutgers, a licensed clinical social worker, lecturer and is in private practice. Ms. Geller is also an adult adoptee and focuses much of her therapeutic work and research on adoptees and adoptive families.

For information about Concerned Persons for adoption, please visit www.cpfan.org.

Follow and “Like us” on Facebook at Concerned Persons for Adoption – CPFA

<https://www.facebook.com/cpfa.newjersey.3>