

Resources for Those Touched by Adoption, Foster Care or Kinship Care

A One-Stop Resource for Those Touched by Adoption

NJ ARCH provides adoption advocacy, support, education, information, resources, and event listings to pre-adoptive and adoptive families, foster families, birth parents, adult adoptees and adoption professionals throughout New Jersey.

Services include:

- Comprehensive state-wide resource directory including adoption agencies, support groups, medical and mental health professionals, camps and more.
- Free Lending Library featuring an extensive collection of adoption, foster care and parenting books, videos and articles. Our unique free library provides an opportunity for you to browse online and select items to be conveniently shipped to your home at no charge. When you are finished with the borrowed items, just use the provided pre-paid postage labels to return them!
- Toll-Free Warm Line number providing information, resources and an empathic ear at 1-877-4ARCHNJ (877-427-2465) 9am-5pm ET, weekdays.
- Parent Training workshops are available for support groups, social service agencies, conferences and /or DCP&P Licensed Resource (foster) parents for possible training credits provided by the host organization. For more information or to view a list of current topics, visit the Parent Training tab on www.njarch.org.

An Information Center for Kinship Families

KinKconnect provides information, support, resources and event listings for those families who are taking care of relative's children through kinship, or have obtained Kinship Legal Guardianship (KLG) of children placed in their home.
